

SCOTT A. GAVORSKY, PHD.

878 2nd Street

Elko, NV 89801-3012 USA

Cell Phone: (678) 656-8201

E-Mail: scott.gavorsky@gmail.com

Website: www.scottgavorsky.org

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Accomplished historian, project director, and event organizer with experience working in the academic and cultural non-profit sectors, over last 6 years in northeastern Nevada.

Areas of Expertise

- 10 years collegiate teaching experience (live, online, and blended)
- Strategic and tactical planning, implementation, and maintenance for sustainable, multi-partner, non-profit academic and cultural projects.
- Data collection and analysis for educational and non-profit projects, including report writing for organizational and federal regulatory standards.
- Extensive presentation work before students, stakeholders, the public, and in the media.
- Record of event organization for informational, scholarly, fundraising, and community purposes.
- Familiarity with non-profit budget management, financial, and reporting requirements.

EXPERIENCE AND SELECT ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Great Basin College (Elko, NV)

August 2012 – June 2018

Professor of History

- Served 5 years on the Virtual Humanities Center at Great Basin College, a National Endowment of the Humanities grant-funded project, including 18 months as director.
- Worked 3 years with Western Shoshone communities on the Great Basin Indian Archives and the Shoshone Community Language Initiative.
- Organized public events including Constitution Day presentations, the GBC Talks community discussion series, and “Dinner with a Professor” fundraising event.

University of Alaska Anchorage (Anchorage, AK)

August 2009 – June 2012

Term Instructor of History

- Organized a state-wide undergraduate history Phi Alpha Theta conference.
- Participated in assessment of academic integrity issues, including helping conduct surveys, focus-group interviews, and writing final committee report.

University of Georgia (Athens, GA)

August 2008 – May 2009

Adjunct Instructor of History

EXAMPLE COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENTS

Nevada Humanities (Reno, NV) - Member, Board of Trustees; Current Chair, Audit Committee

Elkokoak: The Basques of Elko (www.humanities.gbenv.edu/elkokoak) - Online Exhibit Designer

H-France.net (Society for French Historical Studies) - Review Production Editor

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy in History - Emory University (Atlanta, GA)

Bachelor of Arts in History, summa cum laude - Oglethorpe University (Atlanta, GA)

Associate of Arts, History, with highest honors - Georgia Perimeter College (Clarkston, GA)